

A Celtic Afternoon

Presented by
Fr. Gerry Creedon

Wednesday, March 10, 2010
2:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Reflections, Poetry, Music & Celtic Mass

Celtic Crosses, Shamrock's, and Saint Patrick are symbols of the Irish Celtic Christian Spirit that continues to echo its wisdom to us today. This spirituality offers an enriching way to savor God's presence & direction in our lives.

Join us for an afternoon with Fr. Gerry Creedon as we prepare for the Feast of St. Patrick. Fr. Gerry will share personal reflections, poetry, and music from his own well of creativity and that of his heritage. Our time together will also include a Celtic Mass.

Father Gerry Creedon is the pastor of St. Charles Borromeo Church in Arlington. Father Gerry was born and raised in Ireland and after ordination he emigrated to the United States in 1968 to serve as a priest in the Diocese of Richmond. He is proud of his Irish Heritage and has been known to break into song or story about his homeland.

The offering for the afternoon is $20.00.

To make reservations, please call 703.356.4243.

Dominican Retreat
7103 Old Dominion Drive
McLean, Virginia 22101
703.356.4243