

Day of Prayer & Reflection on Celtic Christian Spirituality

Wednesday, March 11, 2009
9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Presented by Fr. Gerry Creedon & Sr. June Fitzgerald, O.P.

Celtic Crosses, Shamrock's, and Saint Patrick are symbols of the Irish Celtic Christian Spirit that continues to echo its wisdom to us today. This spirituality offers an enriching way to savor God's presence & direction in our lives, the goodness of creation, and to develop a sense of time as a sacred reality.

As we prepare for the Feast of St. Patrick we will prayerfully prepare & bake Irish Soda Bread, learn some prayers & songs in Gaelic and learn how we too can embrace the mystery of the Trinity revealed in God's creation.

This retreat, co-directed by Sr. June and Fr. Gerry, includes conferences, time for personal prayer, group discussion and will conclude with the celebration of Eucharist.

The offering for the day is $45.00. We ask for a non-refundable $20.00 deposit with your reservation.

Father Gerry Creedon is the pastor of St. Charles Borromeo Church in Arlington. Father Gerry was born and raised in Ireland and after ordination he emigrated to the United States in 1968 to serve as a priest in the Diocese of Richmond. He is proud of his Irish Heritage and has been known to break into song or story about his homeland.

Sr. June Fitzgerald, OP holds an MA in Christian Spirituality and certification in Spiritual Direction and Directed Retreats. An avid storyteller and woman of prayer she seeks to help others find God in all areas of their lives.
