

The Wisdom of Jesus

“Your Father knows what you need before you ask him.”

Mt. 6:8

Friday, May 14, 2010
9:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Presented by
Fr. Bill Sheehan, OMI

Jesus comes to us as a teacher of Wisdom. The path of wisdom Jesus models is that of surrender. Join us as we explore this path and the invitation it opens up for us within our own lives.

Prayer is a tool that can help us experience, recognize, and embrace the Wisdom of Jesus. It is in stillness that we may surrender to God, let go of our self-centered agenda, and be guided by the Spirit.

The day will offer conferences, group sharing, a period of Centering Prayer, lunch and Mass. While a period of Centering Prayer will be offered, it is not necessary to have previous experience of Centering Prayer to attend.

If you are also attending the Centering Prayer Weekend with Fr. Bill, please note that you may check into your bedroom early, however, we will not be serving dinner and the Retreat staff is unavailable 5-7 p.m.

The Director:

Rev. Bill Sheehan, OMI, is an experienced and beloved retreat director. He has been involved with Contemplative Outreach since 1983, practicing centering prayer and guiding others in this way of prayer for more than 25 years. Fr. Bill has a rich background as a pastor, director of ministry to priests, novice director, director of formation, provincial, and director of the Oblate House of Theology. Previously stationed in Washington, D.C., Fr. Bill now lives in an Oblate House of Prayer in Massachusetts.

The offering for the day is $50.00.
